What the critics say ....

JAMES HALLIDAY— 2008 WINE COMPANION

“Elegant and refined, but with no shortage of flavour; nectarine, melon and oak are seamlessly woven together; great line and length.”

JEREMY OLIVER— 2008 WINE ANNUAL

“Big, beautiful and sumptuous; here is a wine that shows we weren’t all wrong about the attractions of chardonnay at its more statuesque. Powerful and brooding, its aromas of melon, grapefruit and white peach reveal nutty, funky undertones of smoked bacon, cumquat and quince, with a lifted floral aspect.

“Smooth and creamy, its succulent expression of plush, vibrant fruit effortlessly glides down the palate, finishing long and savoury, with lingering fruit spice.”
